DECENTRALIZATION IS IRREVERSIBLE: AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION ARE ADOPTED IN THE FIRST READING

On August 31 Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine on its special meeting supported in the first reading the draft law on introduction of amendments into the Constitution of Ukraine on authority decentralization.

The draft law proposes amendments concerning state authority decentralization in Ukraine and strengthening of constitutional and legal status of local self-government.

Beside that, the draft law takes into consideration the Complex of measures on fulfillment of Minsk agreements of February 12, 2015 – it is provided that the peculiarities of local self-government in certain regions of Donetsk and Lugansk oblasts shall be defined by a separate law.

"More than a half of all communities in the country have already initiated unification. People want European standards for services, jobs, education, and healthcare, as well as decent salaries. Investors and companies want transparent, fair, and understandable rules of economic and business activity", says the Vice Prime-Minister, Minister of regional development, construction, and housing and communal economy of Ukraine, Gennady Zubko

THE GOVERNMENT AND THE EXPERTS ARE JOINTLY WORKING ON THE DRAFT LAW ON PREFECTS

The government, jointly with Polish experts and specialists from the associations of local self-government bodies, started working on the draft law on prefects.

According to the proposed amendments to the Constitution of Ukraine, the institution of prefects shall replace oblast and raion state administrations. It is intended, that prefects shall be appointed by the President, following the recommendation of the Cabinet of Ministers of Ukraine. A prefect is a civil servant, and the post will be a political one. The basic function of a prefect is to control observance of the Constitution and laws of Ukraine by local self-government bodies.
