«For successful implementation of the reform we need people of the respective qualification. EU is willing to provide funds for training of these people. I am convinced, that in the nearest future the investments from our side will yield respective results for Ukraine», said the Commissioner for European Neighbourhood Policy & Enlargement Negotiations, Johannes Hahn.

Almost 60 % of Ukrainians support decentralization

On November 25 a large-scale social survey “Decentralization and local self-government reform” was presented.

During September-October 2015 sociologists studied the knowledge and opinions of the public, concerning decentralization.

The survey indicated that the people of Ukraine made a clear choice in favor of the European democratic way of development and authority decentralization: most Ukrainians (59%) believed that the reform of local self-government and decentralization was necessary. 42% of respondents expect the situation in Ukraine to improve after the reform implementation.

«This will grant local self-government bodies an additional resource, and, first of all, give people an opportunity not to stand in queues, not to go from the raion to the oblast centre, not to give bribes, but, instead, get the needed certificate or permission swiftly and efficiently», said the Prime-minister of Ukraine Arseniy Yatsenyuk.

A law, allowing amalgamated communities to form their own budgets, is adopted

On November 26 Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine approved the law, needed for formation and appropriate fulfillment of budgets of amalgamated territorial communities.

The draft law provides for changes to be introduced into the Budget code, which shall regulate the procedures for development of draft budgets of amalgamated territorial communities and define the mechanisms for control of observance of budgetary legislation on inter-budgetary relations in local self-government bodies of the newly-formed communities.

«With the adoption of this law, communities will be able to fund budgetary establishments with full amounts and in time, as well as bear other necessary costs», said Vice-prime Minister, Minister of regional development, construction, and housing and communal services of Ukraine, Gennady Zubko.
